Press Note.

Import of self-raising flour, Semolina and Barley from foreign countries.

In supersession of all previous instructions regarding the control and movement of self-raising flour, Semolina and Barley imported by the trade, the Government of India, Ministry of Food and Agriculture (Food), have prescribed the following procedure with immediate effect.

(1) At the time of clearance of these articles, the importers should declare to the customs concerned, the name of the consignor/consignee, quantity, (specifying the commodity) and the destination. The declaration will be duly attested by the Customs.

(2) The Railways will book the consignments to the destinations specified in the declaration on presentation of the duly attested declaration.

(3) No inter-State movement of these commodities will be permitted except under (2) above.

Note.—There is, however, no objection to a State Government giving an export permit provided the exporters/importers have obtained the necessary import permit from the Government of the State into which the import is desired.
